

Promoting financial literacy in Hong Kong schools - a case study

10 November 2014

Azeem Ebrahim (Teacher, Diocesan Girls' School)

Jennifer Qiu (Secondary 5 student, Diocesan Girls' School)

Vanessa Ma (Secondary 5 student, Diocesan Girls' School)

Diocesan Girls' School

- Founded in 1860
- Provides an excellent all-round secondary education for girls in Hong Kong
- Prepares girls for a range of careers with a well-balanced lifestyle

ESTABLISHED 1860

Curriculum structure for business, economics and financial education

Year	Subject / Class	Outside the Class
Secondary 3 (Grade 9)	Economics and Commerce Tailor-made school curriculum	Activities and Competitions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • DBS Social Enterprise • Consumer Culture Study • Stock Market Simulation • S4 Company Programme
Secondary 4 - 5 (Grades 10 - 11)	HKDSE Curriculum <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Economics • Business, Accounting and Financial Studies (BAFS)
Secondary 6 (Grade 12)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Public examinations in S6

Thank you